Hello everybody.

This is Claudio from Italy.

I've bought a w110 last year and now I'm doing a light restoring, and that's why I'm now annoying you...

Because obviously I'll need tips and tricks about that kind of car.

Thank you right now to everybody that will have the patience and the kindness to help me.

Greetings

Tschuss

Hi Claudio,

welcome to the Forum !

I am sure you will get answers to your questions here. Hopefully the right ones 😊

And maybe you can help Wuff who spent most of the past 8 to 9 months trying to get his cars registered in Italy 😊

Kind Regards,

Hagen

Hi Claudio, I wrote you a message. I know this messaging function is not too easy to find here in the forum software...
